First Aid Training

It is important that we keep up to date with our training. Anyone who has previously been on the list as a first aider or if you work with Children/young people. Could you please let the office know if you would like to do the training course.

Food Hygiene Course

Anyone who is involved or would like to be involved with coffee break or future café ministry and has done a basic food hygiene course in the past, please contact the office so that we can arrange a refresher course.

Hi Church, there was a great uptake on Home Mission boxes, thank you. Just to say there are more boxes available now and they can be found in the foyer.
Blessings Rab Home Mission Rep WRBC

The summer issue of the Operation Agri magazine is out now - find out how our church is helping to support marginalised communities across the world - the magazine can be viewed on www.operationagri.org.uk and there also a few printed copies available in reception

Link missionary visit – 7th August

We are delighted to welcome our BMS link missionaries Bethan and Gareth Shrubsole and their 3 children at WRBC on 7th August. They are faithfully serving the Lord in Chad but are currently on their home assignment in the UK. They will be sharing about their work during our Sunday morning service.

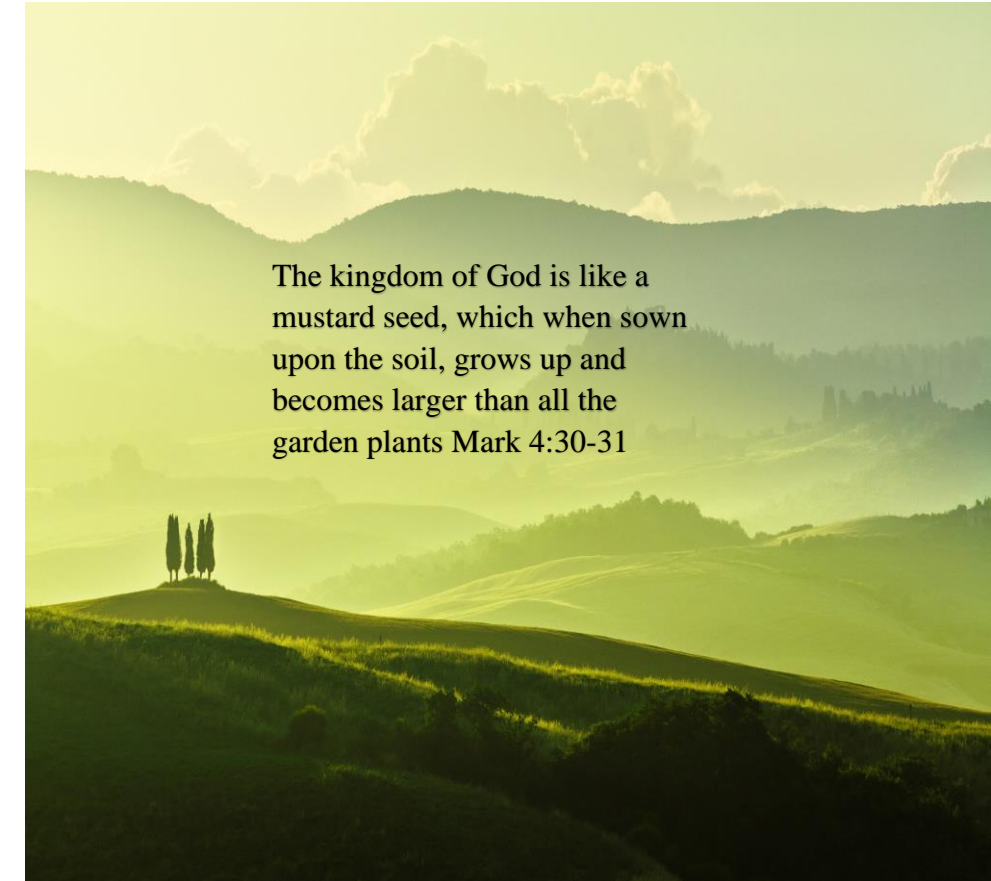

There will be an opportunity to meet and greet and chat with them after the service. To celebrate the occasion and also the return of our pastor Steve from sabbatical we are having a church family BBQ afterwards. The meat for the BBQ will be provided by the church but please could we ask you to bring salads/rolls/nibbles etc to share with the BBQ.

Any queries can be directed to Dianne Cruickshank who will be co-ordinating the bring and share lunch or Lanre Oyewale who is the BMS contact for WRBC.

Cards listing Prayer Points for Bethan and Gareth Shrubsole, Dave and Michele Mahon our BMS families, can be found in the reception area. Please take one and continue to uphold them in your prayers.

The remote control for the projector in the Church Hall is missing. If anyone has seen it would you please let the office know.
