Sunday 10 March 2024 Mothering Sunday

Greetings! This morning's service will be led by Pastor Steve. David Taylor will be leading the intercessory prayers and Nicky Daggers will be reading the bible passage. Ivan Pegg will be bringing the Lord's Word to us today from John 17.

"Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may glorify you."

John 17:1

Morning Worship is being live-streamed each Sunday at 10.30 am, it will be available on our YouTube channel and can also be accessed any time after.

Our Prayer Ministry Team will be available for anyone who would like prayer following this service.

Offerings: We invite you to place your tithe and offerings in the box at the entrance to the Worship Centre. Thank you for your gift to the Lord's work here at WRBC.

Please join us for tea and coffee in the reception area after the service.

Please join us for our Prayer Meeting tonight on zoom at 6.30 pm.

Baptism Sunday 31 March 2024

If you have not been baptised by total immersion and are interested in finding out more, please speak to Pastor Steve by Sunday, 24 March

The next meeting of the DCF (Disabled Christian Fellowship) will be a quiz afternoon on Thursday 14 March at 2pm in the Reception area. Please do join us then. Phlippians 2 v 2 - Then make my joy complete by being like minded, having the same love, being one in spirit and purpose.

WRBC Emergency Prayer Chain: If anyone has an emergency prayer need, they can email our Emergency Prayer Chain. A group of over 50 people at WRBC will receive an email about the prayer request and will get praying! It might be a request for a family member, friend or yourself. We ask that you get the permission of the person needing prayer before sending in the request please. These requests are kept confidential amongst the people on the prayer chain. We've had some amazing answers to prayer and we are always keen to hear of those answers so we can praise and thank God. If you have a prayer request, please email Nicki Hardy on: wrbcpayerchain@gmail.com. If you would like to join the body of people who pray for these needs, please contact the church office. For those who do not have an email address, we can partner you with a "prayer chain buddy". Your buddy will call you and read out the prayer request(s). If you would like to be added this way, please contact the office - thank you.

WRBC Caretaker Role: If you are interested and would like to know more about what the role entails, please speak to Mike or the office. Mike will be stepping down at the end of this month. Thank you.

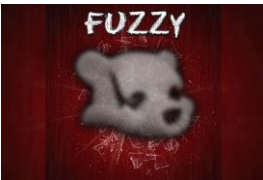

Good Friday:

Reflection service at 10am with Communion. After the service there will be tea and coffee.

Easter Sunday (family service)

Resurrection day worship at 10.30am with Communion.

Fuzzy is a contemporary two act drama inspired by the book of Job and explores themes around mental health, sexuality, faith and relationships. It will be performed at St Cuthbert's in Sprowston on Saturday 18 and Sunday 19 May, 7pm-9pm.

Fuzzy is an original drama written by local writer and director Rev Dean Akrill. "Fuzzy is a play about life because life can be fuzzy. I was first prompted to write this play during one of the many fuzzy periods of my life. I could relate to Job, he too knew that life, love and relationships can be fuzzy and that the meaning of life is fuzzier still. This is a play about fuzziness, about our attempts to make life less fuzzy, and what happens when we think we've got life, love and God sussed. It's also a play about the relative merits of chess and Ker-plunk," said Rev Dean. Tickets are £5 on the door and refreshments will be available. The play is not recommended for those under the age of 15.
